

Indiana has had a "Do Not Call" rule for over one year. I do not want the FCC to implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's law has been quite effective in our household. We used to receive 25 calls a week, usually in the evening. Since signing up for the do not call list we might receive 1 call.